The Fort Myers area offers 50 miles of beautiful white sand beaches, uninhabited islands, and exotic, tropical, wildlife. There is so much to see and do! You'll find major attractions, awe-inspiring tours, and an array of spectacular dining and nightlife.

Edison Ford Winter Estates

The Edison Ford Winter Estates sit on 20-acres and has historical buildings, gardens, the Edison Botanic Research Lab, the Edison Ford Museum, the Edison Main House, Guest House, Caretaker's House, and the Ford House. The museum also has many of Edison's inventions, artifacts, and special exhibits.

Sanibel Island Lighthouse

Established in 1878, the Sanibel Island Lighthouse was created due to the increasing level of trade and boats that were sailing along the Southwest Florida coast. The lighthouse is still operating today and is open for tours.

J.N. "Ding" Darling National Wildlife Refuge

The J. N. "Ding" Darling National Wildlife Refuge is located on the subtropical barrier island of Sanibel in the Gulf of Mexico. The refuge is part of the largest undeveloped mangrove ecosystem in the United States. It is world famous for its spectacular migratory bird populations.

Boston Red Sox Spring Training

The Boston Red Sox Spring Training takes place at Fenway South every spring. Fenway South has many amenities for teams including state-of-the-art training facilities, JetBlue Park (the main ballpark), six practice fields, a rehabilitation center, and other adjoining facilities for both Major and Minor league operations.

Minnesota Twins Spring Training

Since 1991, the Minnesota Twins have done their spring training in Lee County and play at Hammond Stadium. The stadium is part of the 80-acre Lee County Sports Complex, which includes five full and two half baseball fields, two soccer fields, a softball complex and an eight acre lake for public fishing.
